

In 1878, 15-year-old Pauline Haarer started teaching in Nanaimo and taught in the community for 46 years. The new Pauline Haarer Primary School was named in her honour in 1948.