Wacky Wednesday PAC Virtual Meeting Wear your Wacky Wear! 6:30pm

Principal message:

Happy New Year!

It has been a privilege to see all the smiling faces on the children this week. Thank you for sending along the appropriate wear for this crazy wet weather!

The grey skies and rain can run our spirits down, so I have decided that Wednesday should be WACKY WEDNESDAY! I invite students and staff to mix and match clothing and come up with wacky hair styles to show off their creativity and have a little fun!

Please make sure to bring a change of clothes in case it is a rainy day and ensure you incorporate a jacket and some boots as part of your Wacky Ensemble!

Again, it has been a pleasure to see everyone back on site this week. I hope to see many of you online at the PAC meeting next week. The PAC meeting agenda is on the last page of this memo. Here is the Google link for the PAC meeting https://meet.google.com/kuc-jebm-oeg Thank you to new PAC president, Carlin, for scheduling and chairing these meetings.

Sincerely Mme. Apland

Library Lines

Students are borrowing books from the library again after Christmas break. Please remind them to tuck library books into backpacks on Sunday nights ready for returning on Monday mornings.

Thank you to Div. 8 for their tremendous creativity displaying a scene from a favorite book in 3-D. It was inspiring to walk by and see books come to life. Guess we're not the only library to be doing Inventory. The public library phoned they had a few books returned to them from schools. Occasionally, we drop off books from them that have been returned to us. No matter what library a book is from, if you find one that was lost, please send it along. They all count.

Did anyone discover a super book over the holidays? Let me know and we may be able to recommend it to others.

Bookfully yours, Mme Allisen
