Principal Message:

There are many special events being observed and celebrated in the month of February. Please see the February Newsletter sent out earlier this week and also available online for all the latest updates about what is going on at Ecole Pauline Haarer.

Black History Month is a time to honor and celebrate the achievements, contributions, and legacy of Black Canadians throughout our country's history. It's also a time to learn, listen and share the stories, experiences and history of Black communities. Learn more about Black history in Canada, from 1960 to the present.
